BRITTANY PUGH

Brittany Pugh was born and raised in Columbus, OH. She is the youngest of 5 children and the only girl. At the young age of 2 years old she had a liver transplant. At age 10, she lost her mother and at age 15 she lost her father. She was raised by her grandmother, the late E. Frances Pugh.

Brittany grew up in Mt. Olivet Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Dr. Charles E. Booth. While in middle school, Brittany joined the mime ministry at her church. In 2012, she became the leader of that mime ministry and was also led of God to start her own mime ministry called Imago Dei Mime Ministry. Imago Dei is Latin for Image of God. Since its origin in 2012, her gift has opened many doors and opportunities for her to not only minister but teach and conduct her own conferences and workshops.

Brittany has ministered throughout the state of Ohio, Florida, South Carolina, Atlanta and other places.

Currently, Brittany is the Performing Arts instructor at Sonshine Christian Academy where she oversees all programs such as Christmas, Black History and Easter. She is also a published author, her first book "Come out of Hiding" tells her story of deliverance and healing from generational curses and bondage. Brittany's mission is to share the good news of Jesus Christ and help others to live a life of freedom and joy!
